OPENING HYMN

Morning Hymn – PNCC #195 (verses 1, 2, 3)

ENTRANCE HYMN (Amos 3:7-8; 2 Chronicles 20:20b)

C. Indeed, the Lord God does nothing without revealing His plan to His servants, the prophets. The lion roars—who will not be afraid! The Lord God speaks—who will not prophesy!

R. Trust in the Lord, your God, and you will be found firm. Trust in His prophets, and you will succeed.

C. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING

AM 7:12-15

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos.

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, “Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king’s sanctuary and a royal temple.”

Amos answered Amaziah, “I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.”

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;

the LORD—for he proclaims peace.

Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;

justice and peace shall kiss.

Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;

our land shall yield its increase.

Justice shall walk before him,

and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

FEAST OF ST. CHRISTOPHER – BLESSING OF VEHICLES

Feast of St. Christopher, a legendary martyr of the early Church, patron saint of drivers is on July 25th. Therefore, on Sunday after this feast, on July 28th, after Mass at 9:00 AM and short Congregational Meeting, the blessing of drivers and vehicles (cars, motorcycles, bicycles) will take place on our parking lot. Don’t run home after Mass, please stay for a very short meeting in the church (10 minutes max) and later let your car be blessed for your safety and other drivers and passengers.

Bring your power horses to be blessed. They need a holy water.

TV SCREEN IN OUR AUDITORIUM AND IN THE SANCTUARY - UPDATE

The response was so quick, and order was made before I was able to ask others for help. Incredibly amazing Parish! All details in the next Sunday bulletin.

I know, there are other Parishioners, who would like to participate financially in this project, so here is another update that we can make: the digital LED signage, the electronic programmable Message Board, can replace the black board which is displayed in the middle of the lawn between the church and the rectory. It cannot be a regular LED TV, but weatherproof (heat, cold, humid) special designed LED display. Many PNCC parishes have them already. Cost: ~ $3,500 for the size we need.

If someone would like to make an extra donation for this project, please contact pastor at 412.678.0566 (office) or 412.330.8286 (cell).

SECOND READING

EPH 1:3-10

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of God's grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth. The Word of the Lord.

ALLELUIA

CF. EPH 1:17-18

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

GOSPEL

MK 6:7-13

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick — no food, no sack, no money in their belts.

They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance.

The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

CLOSING HYMN

All Creatures of Our God and King – Ritual Song #670 (verses 1, 4 & 5)

FAITH SHARING

Today's readings remind us of our Divine adoption as God's children and of our call to preach the Good News of Jesus by bearing witness to God's love, mercy, and salvation.

The first reading warns us that our witnessing mission will be rejected, as happened to the Old Testament prophets like Amos. He defended his prophetic role with courage, clarifying that it was not his, but God's choice to elevate him to a prophet.

In the second reading St. Paul explains the blessings that we have received through our Baptism and the responsibility we have to become missionaries. Then Paul reveals the Divine secret that it is God's eternal plan to extend salvation, through Jesus, to all mankind — first to the Jews and then to the Gentiles. Hence, the Jewish and the Gentile Christians need to love, help, and respect one another, and thus, to proclaim Jesus, giving true witness to him by their lives.

In today's Gospel the evangelist tells the story of Jesus' commissioning of the twelve apostles to preach the "Good News" of repentance, forgiveness of sins, liberation, and salvation through Jesus, and to bring healing to those who need it most. Today's Gospel reports the instruction Jesus gave the apostles for their first mission. They are to be walking illustrations of God's love and providence in action. They are to preach repentance — a change of heart and a change of action taking people from a self-centered life to a God-centered life.

LIFE MESSAGES

We, too, have a witnessing mission: We are called to be witnessing disciples and evangelizing apostles. As witnessing disciples, we need to follow, imitate, reflect, and radiate only Jesus. As apostles, we need to evangelize the world by sharing with others our experience of God and His Son, Jesus, by proclaiming Jesus' Gospel and promised salvation through our transparent Christian lives and words, radiating the love, mercy, forgiveness, spirit of humble service and concern of Jesus to the people around us.
